Merchandise

A variety of Barts and The London merchandise will be available to purchase in the adjacent marquee. Photo frames bought here will be engraved with Barts and The London.

Photography is provided by Success Photography.

If you pre-ordered a yearbook, they are available for collection.

Acknowledgments

We would like to thank the following people, without whom this ceremony would not have been possible:

We would also like to thank the following organisations for their generous financial support:

Barts and The London Alumni Association
The Medical Defence Union
Wesleyan Medical Sickness

Thanks also to all those not named here who have been essential in making the ceremony a success, including all the volunteers, stewards, catering, union and college staff, Edes and Ravenscroft, Success Photography and all those who came to join in the celebration.

If you have any comments regarding the ceremony, please email them to blpresident@qmsu.org
Welcome and Introduction

Welcome to the Barts and The London School of Medicine and Dentistry Rites of Passage Ceremony, 2013.

As many of you will be aware, St. Bartholomew's Hospital is the oldest hospital in the UK, remaining on the same site in West Smithfield since 1123. Nearby in the East End, The London Hospital established the first official medical college in 1785. These two great institutions merged in 1995 and became part of Queen Mary, University of London.

Every year since then, a Rites of Passage ceremony has been held to acknowledge the graduates of the medical schools. In the first few years whilst there were still students from the respective colleges, there were in fact two ceremonies; one for students of St. Bart’s and another for those of The Royal London. The ceremonies then merged and we continue the tradition today. We do it not only to congratulate the students on qualifying as the doctors and dentists of tomorrow, but also to acknowledge the academic and extra-curricular contributions they have made.

One only graduates from medical school once and so it should be a day to remember. As you sit in the picturesque grounds of Charterhouse Square, we invite you to relish in the history, celebrate the success and wish everyone well for whatever the future holds.

We hope you have an enjoyable day.

Declaration of Geneva

I solemnly pledge consecrate my life to the service of humanity; I will give to my teachers the respect and gratitude that is their due; I will practice my profession with conscience and dignity; The health of my patient will be my first consideration; I will respect the secrets that are confided in me, even after the patient has died; I will maintain by all the means in my power, the honour and the noble traditions of the medical profession; My colleagues will be my sisters and brothers; I will not permit considerations of age, disease or disability, creed, ethnic origin, gender, nationality, political affiliation, race, sexual orientation, social standing or any other factor to intervene between my duty and my patient; I will maintain the utmost respect for human life; I will not use my medical knowledge to violate human rights and civil liberties, even under threat; I make these promises solemnly, freely and upon my honour.

Key

Colours are awarded to individuals who have been members of, and made outstanding contributions to, the student group in question.

Blues are the highest recognition a group can give an individual. Blues are reserved for those students who have been leaders and innovators and have gone above and beyond the call of duty for the group.

SSLC (Student-Staff Liaison Committee) Honours are awarded to students who have served as a course representative.

Association Honours are awarded to individuals who have served on the Barts and The London Students’ Association’s governing committee.

A full list of Clubs, Societies and Volunteering projects can be found at www.qmsu.org/blsa under ‘Activities’

A list of internal prizes can be found here:
www.smd-edu.qmul.ac.uk/student_office/prizes

Please note, only 1st place prizes have been acknowledged.
